Be forgetful of favors given; be mindful of blessings received....

1st Year Is this your first year in AA? Do you get discouraged and wonder if it is worth it? Have you had those terrible doubts that you might not be able to resist that first drink? Let me tell you about my first year in AA. You, who might be having a rough time. Hang on, cut everything down to size—then—pray. Keep in mind that one can only do what one is capable of doing, today. We only have today; even less—just this moment. The first year in AA was one heck of a battle for me. I hung on to my sobriety by the proverbial thread. Oh, I wanted to stay sober, that's for sure, otherwise I never would have made it through that first year. I was not living for today; instead, I concerned myself about the future. The future looked black and the more I worried, the blacker it became. Physically, I was a wreck. Ulcers, colds, aches and pains and not a darn thing to numb the agony. Mentally and emotionally, I felt the worst of all. The car accidents I had had during my drinking days had taken their toll. When I drove the car to meetings I frequently had to stopthree or four times, coming and going—because suddenly I would start shaking violently. This went on for at least six months, but AA taught me to go to any lengths for my sobriety and I was not going to let these "shakers" get me down. There was only one ray of hope in all of this: spiritually, I was coming alive. My first contact with faith was the AA program. Then, I came to believe...in this forgotten (but familiar) power greater than myself. Yet I was not willing to turn my life completely over into God's hands. I was sober but still very much a tyrant at home. I gave in to nervousness and the family took the brunt of my bad temper. I shall never forget the night that I was the last one to be seated at the dinner table. When I looked around the table there were my darling children and good husband all waiting to see if mother was going to be her usual nasty self. I was appalled—and so damned ashamed. I immediately made a silent promise that I would change. The more I tried, the worse I became. So I prayed, and God answered the prayers. I don't know when it happened but it did: one day I realized that I was behaving more decently to my patient family. Just a note to non-alcoholic: don't lose sight of the fact that we alcoholics are really trying, even though it does not look that-a-way. Time, patience and many prayers—that is the clue. During that first year, I had one terrific compulsion to drink. I drove around in the car, telling myself, "I am an alcoholic and cannot take that first drink, Dear God, help me." It worked! What a reliefrealization finally hit me that I did not have to drink, no matter what. I was and still am fully aware that alcohol is cunning, baffling, and powerful but, there is one that has all power and that one is God. My sobriety became the most valuable and precious possession I had. By this time. I was sober one year and woke up to the world around me. I'd look up to the sky and feel the awe that comes with realizing how insignificant one really is. I thought about the miracle of birth and looked at my children and felt the love well up in me that had

Reprinted from earlier newsletter (2005), just what to relay a little Central Office History.

Since next month Tri-County Central Office will be celebrating it's 30th year in existence, I thought it would be befitting to honor some of the groups that originally helped us to get started. Although Central Office had been in existence since the early-mid 40's, known then as the Tampa Area Service Center or sometimes as the "Headquarters", we didn't become Tri-County Central Office until 1975. Following will be the original groups that supported Central Office back in 1975. I found these documents as I was doing some research for our upcoming Board Chairperson and I thought it might be interesting to share with everyone else, so here goes:

The Sunset Men's Group located at 4624 Browning Ave.

The Closed Women's Group located at 3333 W. Columbus

The New Start Group located at 6806 Nebraska Ave.

The Corrections Committee needs all types of volunteers. They need people to attend meetings in the facilities, people to help spread the word about this type of service work. It is okay if you have never been to jail yourself! You can still help. You can still carry A.A.'s message of hope to an alcoholic who is incarcerated Let's face it: many of us who have never been arrested just never got caught!

Daily Tips for Old and New Members

The unhappiest person in the world is the alcoholic who has an insistent yearning to enjoy life as he once knew it, but cannot picture life without alcohol. He has a heart-breaking obsession that by some miracle of control he will be able to do so. Sobriety is the most important thing in your life without exception. You may believe your job, or your home life, or one of many other things come first. But consider, if you do not get sober and stay sober, chances are you won't have a job, a family, sanity, or even life. If you are convinced that everything in life depends on your sobriety, you have so much more chance of getting sober and staying sober. If you put other things first you are only hurting your chances.

- (1) Cultivate continued acceptance of the fact that your choice is between unhappy, drunken drinking and doing without just one small drink.
- (2) Cultivate gratitude you have had the good fortune of finding out what was wrong with you before it was too late.
- (3) Expect as being natural and inevitable, that for a period of time, (and it may be a long one) you will recurrently experience the craving, not for a drink as such, but for the soothing glow and warmth a drink or two once gave you.
- (4) Don't permit yourself to think a drink or two would make some bad situation better, or at least easier to live with. Substitute the though: "One drink will make it worse, one drink will mean a drunk."
- (5) Cultivate the enjoyment of sobriety. How good it feels to be free of shame, mortification and self-condemnation .How good it is to be free of fear of the consequences of a drunk just ended, or a coming drunk you have never before been able to prevent.
- (6) Cultivate gratitude. Gratitude that so much can be yours for so small a price. Gratitude that you don't have to drink. Gratitude that A.A. exists, and you found out about it in time. Gratitude that you are only a victim of a disease called Alcoholism, that you aren't a degenerate, immoral weakling, or the self-elected victim of a vice or a person of doubtful sanity.
- (7) Seek ways to help other alcoholics and remember the first way to help others is to stay sober yourself.
- (8) And don't forget that when the heart is heavy and resistance is low, there is much comfort in a true and understanding friend standing by you. You have that friend in A.A.

been dormant for too many years. I looked at my husband and felt a momentary pang—I thought, "If I could turn back the clock and start all over, be what I used to be like before alcohol took possession of me." But that was yesterday and one can never go back. I had grown up somewhat and knew that I could only show by my example and actions, today, how grateful I am for his patience, tolerance and intestinal fortitude. We hear in AA that it takes guts to stay on this program but I believe it takes time. It is a little over three years since I had my last drink. It is also when I first started to live. I thank God and AA for my sobriety and for life. True, I am insignificant and unimportant but without AA, I would be nothing.

This outreach serves to help future heath care service providers understanding about alcoholism and the vital purpose AA serves to provide a 'Solution'.

Although still well attended by observers - we also need support by recovered alcoholics.
